ALMA VS. MT. PLEASANT

College Defeats Indians In Opening Game of Season

Alma college defeated the Mt. Pleasant Indian aggregation in a slow and desultory game Tuesday afternoon on Davis field. This was the opening game of the season and neither team was in even fair condition to play fast ball. The game opened with Ed. Johnson in the box, Vogt catching and W. Schultz 1st, Greene 2nd, Siminton 3rd, Goodrich ss, McCoy cf, Hyde rf, Peacock 3f. Numerous substitutions were made by both teams. The game started by Johnson allowing the first Indian to bat a slow grounder to infield which resulted in the first out at first, the second man was put out by Vogt on a caught foul, third man knocked an infield fly to Greene who caught him out.

Alma then came to bat and proceeded to make three scores the first inning, Siminton was thrown out at first from an infield grounder, Vogt made a single base on a fly, Goodrich singled on a grounder and Vogt was thrown out on second, Goodrich steals second and on an over throw reaches third, two men out, one man on third and McCloy to bat. Goodrich steals home on a ball making the first run of the season for Alma, McCloy is walked, and steals second, Schultz singles and McCloy comes in for the second run, Peacock takes a hit and Schultz comes home, Greene is put out on an infield fly and Peacock dies on third. Score 3-0 at end of first inning.

Final score, 8-4.
Runs—Siminton 2, Vogt 1, Goodrich 1, McCloy 2.

Johnson pitched a good game for an opener and was given good support, only the game was uninteresting from the fact that Alma outclassed her opponents. Mt. Pleasant used three pitchers and Alma only one. Vogt held up his reputation as a catcher, and Siminton played a good game on the third sack. Goodrich is a valuable addition to the Alma team. The positions are uncertain as yet and several candidates are working hard for the initial sack. Zimmerman umpired.

ALMA GLEE CLUB

Part two consisted of two numbers by the Alma glee club quartette, solos by Mr. Veatch, three selections by Mr. Davis, two readings by Mr. Beyer and a duet by Messrs. Butler and Anderson. It is impossible to dwell upon these numbers, all of which were perfectly given.

The work of Mr. Goodrich of this city was the feature of part three "An

THE EASTER SERVICES

Special Music and Appropriate Sermons Make the Day One to Be Remembered

Rev. William H. Mason preached Easter sermons at both services at the Presbyterian church Sunday and during the morning service the choir sang, "An Easter Song" as the anthem and Miss Lorna Woodruff sang "The Lord Is Risen" by Sullivan. "Hosanna," also an Easter anthem was sung by the choir in the evening.

Easter at the Episcopal church was a day of service, flowers and song. Beginning at six o'clock Sunday morning the Holy Communion service was held. Mr. John Chick sang, "Come See the Place Where Jesus Lay" as an offertory solo and the solos during the communion service were sung by Miss Ruth Kelley and Mrs. C. W. Sidebotham. At the regular morning service, also a communion service, Mrs. Sidebotham sang the offertory solo, "Alleluia" and with Miss Kelley again sang the communion responses. The vesper service and children's hour was held at 5 o'clock in the afternoon and the Misses Olive Smith and Harriet McGraham sang a duet, "Forever With the Lord" and Miss Gertrude Benedict sang the soprano obligato on the anthem "I Love the Lord."

At the Methodist church flowers and plants were used on the pulpit and altar for decorations. Rev. Brownlow preached a splendid Easter sermon and the chorus choir sang Vincent's "As It Began at Dawn." Mr. T. A. Fannell also sang "Hosanna," by Grainier. During the Sunday School hour the pupils of the primary department gave an Easter program consisting of songs and recitations. Especially pleasing was the recital of the Twenty-third Psalm by Marjorie Putnam, a little miss of four years, who though entirely hidden by the flowers, gave the Psalm with very distinct enunciation.

At the evening service the pastor began a series of sermons to young people using "Young People and Their Associates" as his theme and the Wright Male Quartette sang "The Joy of His Awakening."

The Easter exercises at the Baptist church were particularly interesting. At the morning service Rev. J. W. Priest preached on "The Significance of Christ's Resurrection," the choir sang two beautiful Easter anthems and Miss Mary Sharp sang "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth." The Sunday school had charge of the evening service and gave "The Triumph of Christ," an Easter cantata. The music of the cantata was given by the Sunday school choir and the story of the life of Adoniram Judson, the great Baptist missionary, was given in three parts by Miss Louise Hainline, Harold Emmons and Raymond Medler. Recitations were also given by Nelda Smith, Grace Wedge and Leone Coleman.

OBITUARIES

Watson Dexter Kirby died at his home in Arcadia township last Sunday morning at eight o'clock, having been in poor health for two years.

Mr. Kirby was born in Eaton County, Michigan, Sept. 22, 1843, and came to Gratiot County in 1866. He settled on the farm in Arcadia township where he has since lived and where he died. Mr. Kirby was a charter member of Alma lodge F. & A. M. No. 244, and was recognized by his acquaintances as a man of strict integrity and honesty. He is survived by two brothers and one sister, Charles of Eaton County, William of Gratiot and Miss Henrietta, who made her home with her deceased brother.

The funeral service was held Tuesday by Rev. J. W. Priest and burial was made in Riverside cemetery.

lot will be put in good condition by Decoration day. Send in your dollar to the City Clerk or any member of the Board.

Some of the lots are not paid for. Why is this? It occurs to the Board that of all the places one would wish to hold title to, it would be the place where the loved ones are laid away.

Your Board labors without compensation except the pride they feel in making and keeping this one of the beauty spots of the community. You can do your little share, and with it we will endeavor to maintain the merited reputation of our cemetery.

Sincerely,

R. J. FRAKER,
A. W. BROCK,
